

WANT TO TRAVEL THE WORLD?

→ EARN A LIVING FROM SPORT?

WILL YOU BE THE NEXT TONY HILL?

Tony's Profile:

- Counties Manukau cricket representative in the 1980s
- Began umpiring in 1991 (age: 40)
- Umpired first senior game in 1991 (age: 40)
- Umpired first inter-district game in 1992 (age: 41)
- Umpired first Test in 2001 (age: 50)
- Appointed to ICC Elite Panel in 2009 (age: 57)

What you need to become the next Tony Hill...

- A "feel" for the game - ex senior players and or representative players have an advantage
- Knowledge of the Laws and Playing Conditions - you will need to learn these to pass your umpiring accreditation
- An ability to relate to the players
- Eyesight and hearing - yes, contrary to popular opinion umpires need to be able to see and hear!

What umpiring can provide you!

- Enjoyment, involvement and rewards
- Opportunity for training, resources and support
- The challenge through club, district and provincial umpiring
- A career path to the ICC Elite Panel
